

Leave the Wisconsin no call list alone! I found it very effective. Since I did not renew my number for the list, I have been bothered many times. Renewal should not be required - once you're on the list you should stay on till you remove yourself.